

Health – Substance Abuse Data Analysis

Program

Intervention

Usual Care

Gender

Female

Male

Race Ethnicity

Hispanic

Native American

Non Hispanic Black

Medical Condition

Anxiety

Depression

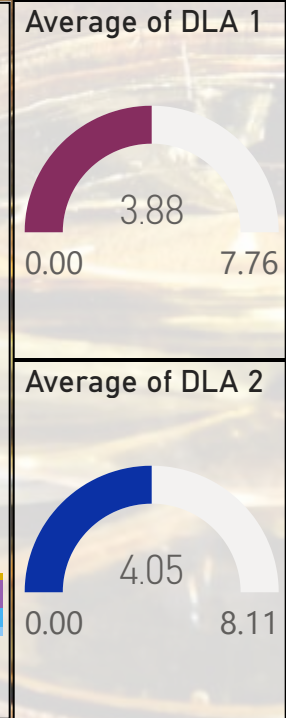

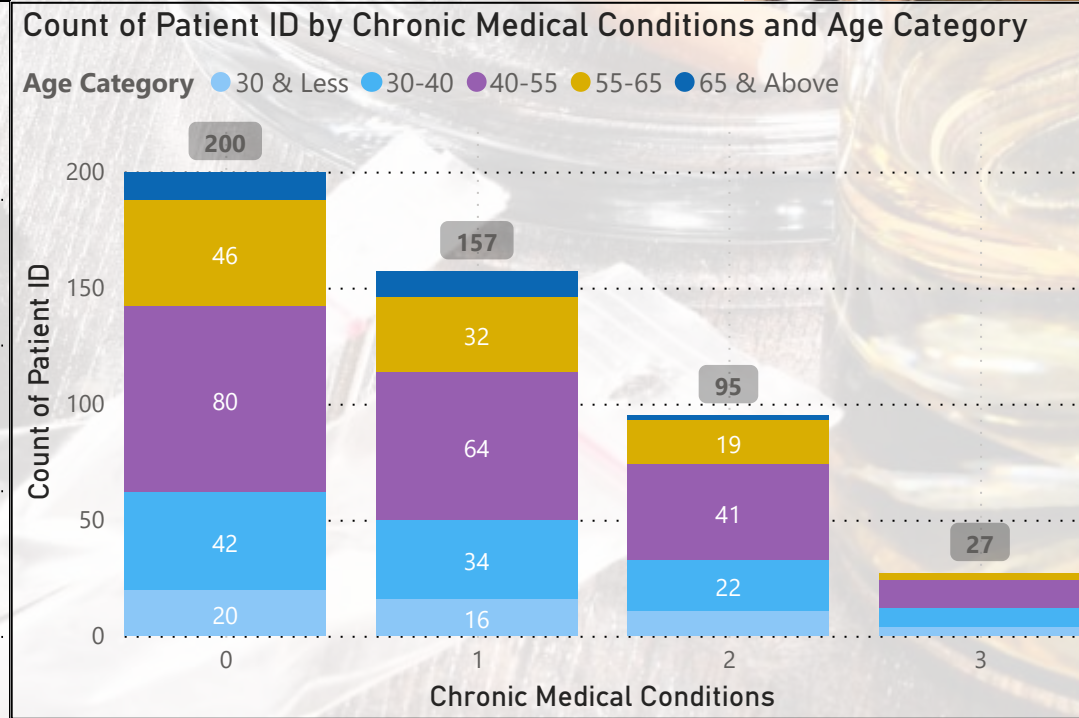

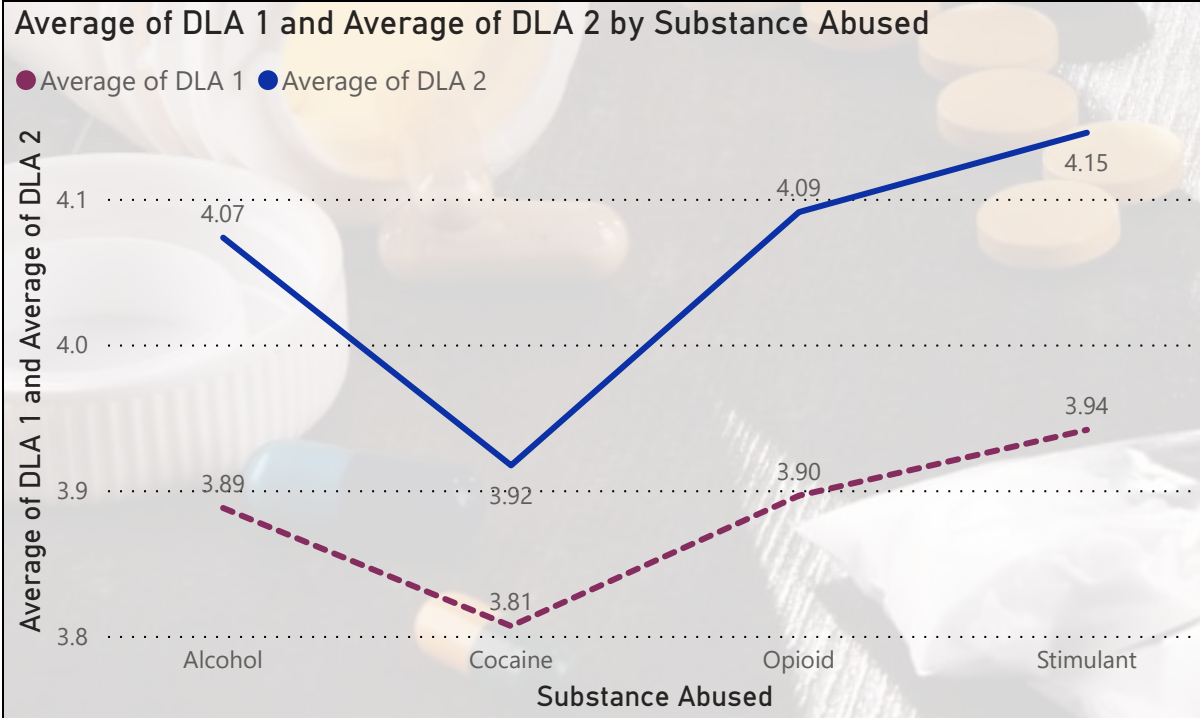

Psychosis

Substance Abused

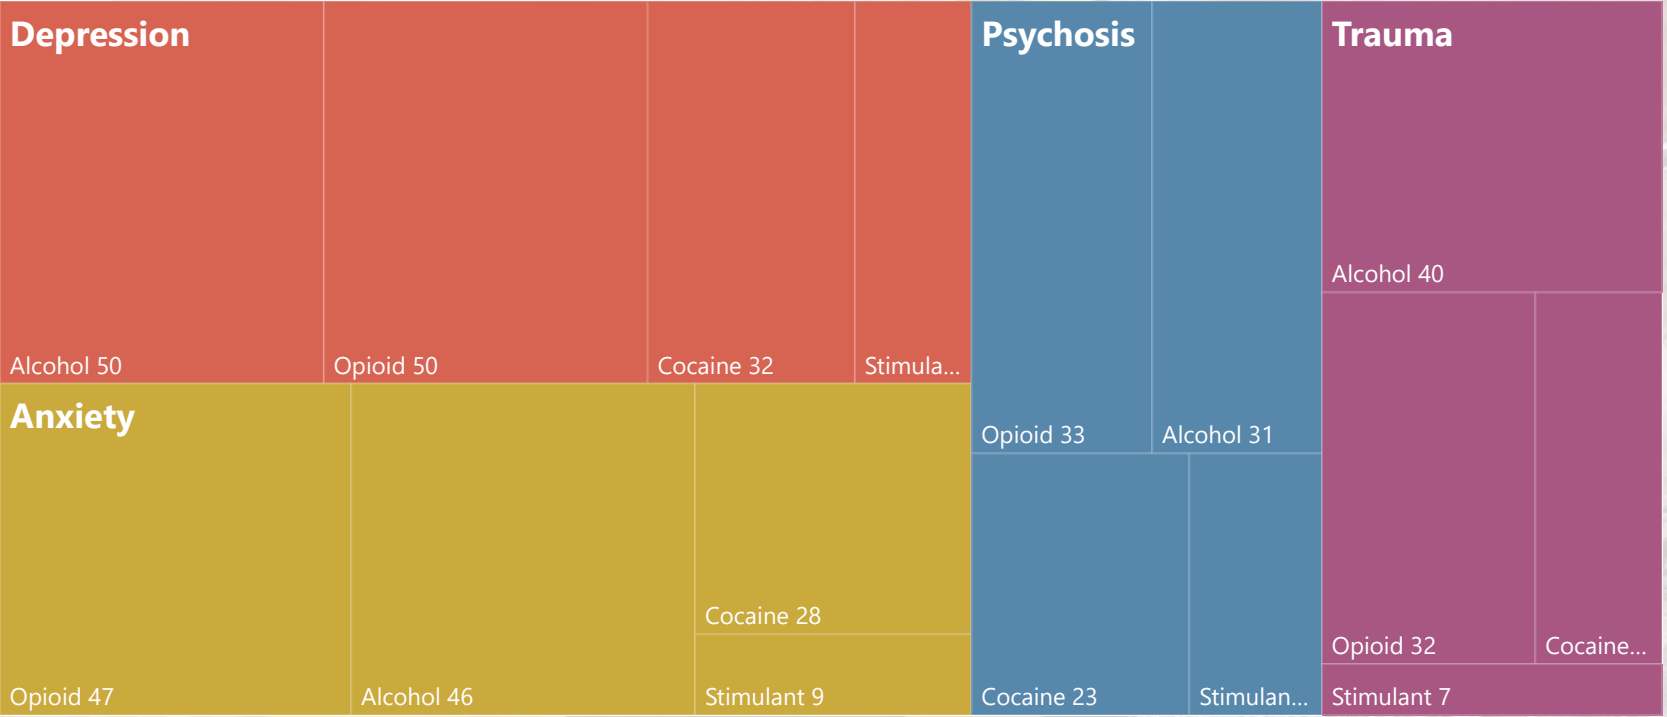

Alcohol

Cocaine

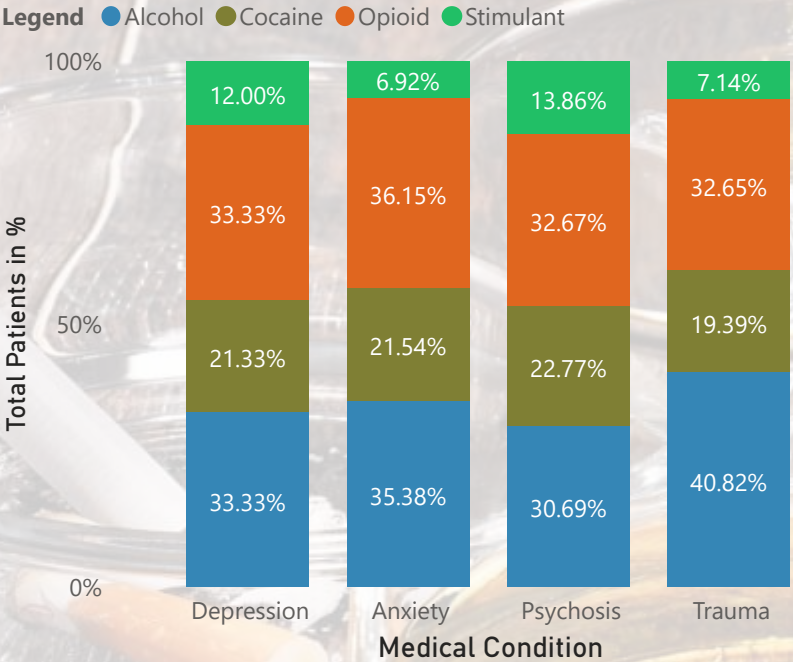

Opioid

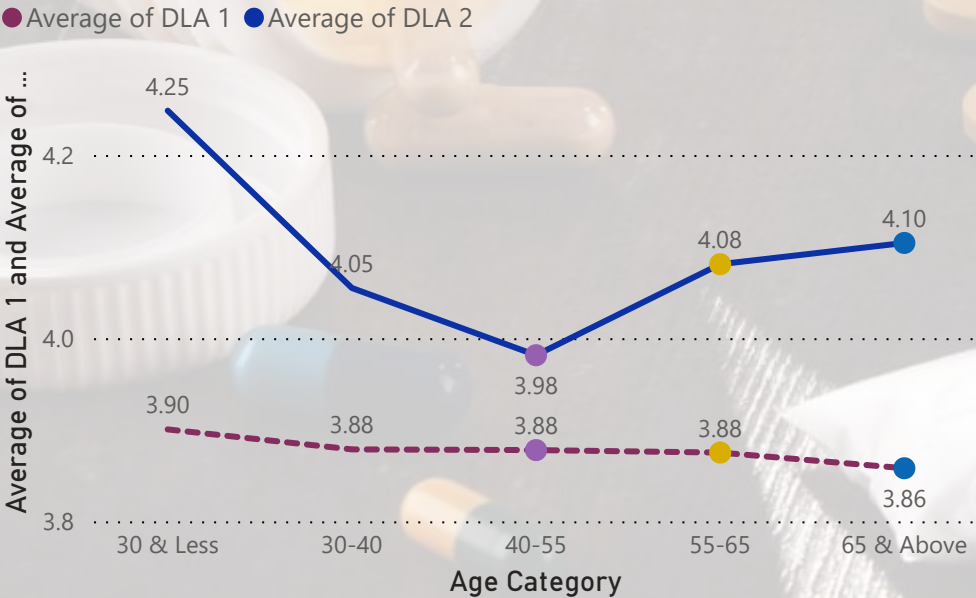

Total No. of Patients by Medical Condition and Substance Abused

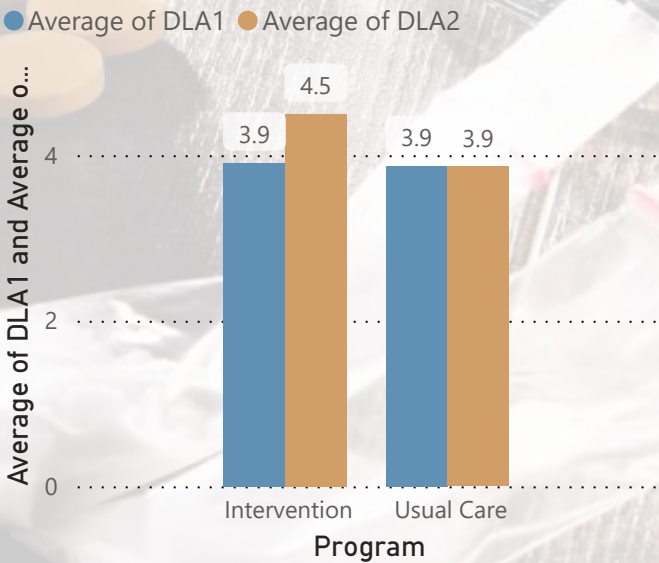

Total No. of Patients by Medical Condition and Substance Abused in %

Average of DLA 1 and Average of DLA 2 by Age Category

Average of DLA1 and Average of DLA2 by Program

INSIGHTS

Alcohol had the highest total Total No. of Patients at 167, followed by Opioid, Cocaine, and Stimulant.

At 197, 40-55 had the highest Number of Records and was 688.00% higher than 65 & above, which had the lowest Number of Records at 25.

Usual Care accounted for 70.15% of Total No. of Patients.

Depression had the highest Total No. of Patients and was 53.06% higher than Trauma, which had the lowest Total No. of Patients at 98.

Depression accounted for 31.32% of Total No. of Patient

Across all 4 Medical Condition, Total No. of Patients ranged from 98 to 150.